

YOUNG DENTISTS VOLUNTEER GRANT TERMS & CONDITIONS

- The grant amount is up to $3,500 AUD to cover airfares, accommodation and other expenses directly related to the volunteer experience, as approved by the Board prior to participation in the program. Receipts must be provided for reimbursement of expenses.
- Participation in the selected program is subject to final approval by the program leader.
- Participation in the approved program must take place within the 12 months following the awarding of the grant at times negotiated with the program leader, unless otherwise approved by the ICD Board.
- The level of active participation of the grant recipient in the program is at the sole discretion of the program leader. This may mean that in certain circumstances, the grant recipient may only be an observer.
- The grant recipient must adhere to the protocols and codes of conduct which apply to volunteers engaged in the program.
- The grant recipient must meet local regulatory requirements in the country of the selected program, as all volunteers must do.
- The recipient of the ICD Young Dentists Volunteer Grant is not eligible to apply again for an ICD Young Dentists Volunteer grant.
- The grant recipient can submit receipts for additional expenses incurred following completion of participation in the program for consideration by the Board within the $3,500 limit of the grant.
- The International College of Dentists has no responsibility to provide insurance for my participation in the volunteer program and is indemnified in respect of any claim made as a result of participation in the program. Participation in the volunteer program is undertaken at the participant's own risk.
- The grant recipient will provide an article and photos for the ICD newsletter as requested by the Editor of the newsletter following participation in the program.
- The grant recipient will give a presentation on his/her experience at an ICD function if invited by the Board.
